

SAINT GREGORY THE GREAT

*The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ
June 2 & 3, 2018*

From The Desk of the Pastor

My dear parish family, it is hard to believe that June has arrived, many graduations have taken place and many more will happen in the coming few weeks, and summer has begun!

Last Sunday at the 9:30 am Mass I was pleased to bless and dedicate our new Baptismal Font. I do not know if we really appreciate the importance of Baptism and reflect daily on living our Baptism. This is an important question to answer. I raise this question for the simple reason that weekly we meet parishioners who are either planning a Baptism or who are hoping to be a Godparent. In many cases the people involved truly know and understand the Sacrament. It is evident by the way they speak and knowledge of the role and importance of a Godparent and responsibility of a parent or Godparent to raise their child in the Faith. On the other hand, many approach the Sacrament who do not themselves celebrate Mass regularly and who request Godparents who are not practicing Catholics and in many cases (yes, here at St. Gregory's) are atheists, Muslims or Jewish people. They do not understand that the Godparent is a role to help mentor their child in the Faith. The Godparent is one who should be a close member of the family who will be an example of faith and be able to pray with and have a mentoring role with the child as he/she matures regarding faithfully living as a Catholic.

In years gone by we probably focused daily on Baptism more so than today. I recall at home we had a holy water font by the door filled with holy water to bless ourselves as we came and went from the house. This was a reminder of Baptism. When we entered our home, it was the custom to say (in Polish) "Blessed be the name of our Lord Jesus Christ." Those in the house replied by saying (in Polish) "Both now and forever." This beautiful greeting was a reminder of our call to live our lives as a blessing to Jesus Christ. Today, many of our "old" customs are gone and maybe some of our conscious thought of daily living our Baptism has also been sidelined. We have the great practice of blessing ourselves with Holy Water on our way into and out of the Church. I find it interesting to observe on Sunday mornings as people come in to Church and pass the Baptismal Water Font. Some reverently dip their finger into the water and make the Sign of the Cross. Some quickly perform the task and others simply pass by without taking notice of the opportunity. Where are you with the daily understanding of your Baptism? Where are you with your daily understanding of Discipleship in Christ which begins at Baptism? (continued on page 2)

On behalf of our entire parish I thank Dr. Michael Noe who generously donated our new Baptismal Font in Memory of his late wife, Paula. Dr. Noe, you have provided our parish with a beautiful font worthy of the dignity of the Sacrament of Baptism, the gateway to Discipleship in Christ. I hope, pray and believe that your dear wife Paula is at peace with God and I am certain that in her saint-hood with the Lord in Heaven she will be interceding for the many thousands who will come to be members of the Body of Christ in the waters of Baptism dedicated and given in her memory and honor. Thank you Dr. Noe for your great and generous gift to our parish family!

In other news, I would like to thank David Bauer and Michael Burns for their many years of service on our parish Finance Committee. I also thank Dr. Edward Gress for fulfilling his first term of office on our parish Finance Council and for his generous "yes" to another three-year term. I also wish to thank and announce the appointments of George Wands and David Rodas to three-year terms. Finally, I thank Joe Couche who finished his commitment to serve as Finance Council Chair, and I wish to acknowledge and thank James Smyczynski for his willingness to become the new Chairman. Many thanks to all who serve on our Finance Council!

May God bless you, our Mother Mary watch over you and St. Gregory the Great intercede for you, always.

Respect Life

Removing Federal Funding from Abortion Providers: The Trump Administration announced the adoption of a Protect Life Rule issued by the Department of Health and Human Services. The new regulation on Title X funding requires organizations receiving grants to have physical and financial separation from organizations providing abortion.

Title X is a family-planning program, created in 1970, to provide low-income women with pre-pregnancy services. Under current law, there is a specific prohibition on directly funding abortion services. However, over the years, the law has been interpreted to require grant recipients to refer for abortion. Consequently, faith-based health centers that object to abortion were discouraged from applying for Title X grants. It also ensured a direct link between family planning services and the promotion of abortion, as most of Title X recipients also provide and promote abortion.

The Protect Life Rule is another in a series of changes impacting the Title X grant-making process. The changes are designed to invite pro-life alternatives to work with the federal government in family planning and replace Planned Parenthood.

The new regulation drew praise from the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), which welcomed the administration's decision to separate abortion providers from the Title X family-planning program. Cardinal Timothy Dolan, the head of the USCCB's Pro-Life Secretariat, said the changes were "greatly needed."

"Most Americans recognize that abortion is distinct from family planning and has no place in a taxpayer-funded family planning program. For too long, Title X has been used to subsidize the abortion industry. We need to draw a bright line between what happens before a pregnancy begins and what happens after a child has been created," Cardinal Dolan stated, noting that abortion takes the life of a child and leaves lasting effects on the mother, her family and friends.

Parish Mission

A Parish Mission is a time in a parish community when the community gathers together to gain further insight into a faith-filled life. It is a time for graces and renewal of the parish through services and talks filled with stories, examples and meaning.

This past year, several people have asked if it would be possible to have a Lenten Mission instead of Summer Mission. So after some thought and discussion with the mission committee, and also realizing that Father Leon will be on sabbatical this summer, it was agreed that we would forgo the Summer Mission 2018 and move the Mission to Lent 2019.

The mission committee is very excited to have the time to coordinate an outstanding Mission for Lent 2019. As we move forward information will be printed in the Bulletin.
